RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On January 31, 2020, Eva Gordon (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-1 to -34 (“Vaccine Act” or “Act”), as amended. Petitioner alleges that she suffered a Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”), as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine administered to her on October 6, 2018. Petition, ECF No. 1, at 1.

On November 14, 2022, the Secretary of Health and Human Services (“respondent”) filed an Amended Vaccine Rule 4(c) Report advising that, in light of the medical records submitted in this case and the Court’s finding that petitioner received the flu vaccine in her right arm, respondent did not dispute that petitioner had satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Vaccine Act. Amended Rule 4(c) Report, ECF No. 40, at 4-5. On December 23, 2022, the Court issued a Ruling on Entitlement, finding that petitioner was entitled to vaccine compensation.¹ ECF No. 42.

I. Items of Compensation

Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $62,500.00, which represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a). Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case. Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment as described below and requests that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following:² a lump sum payment of $62,500.00, in the form of a check payable to petitioner.

III. Summary of Recommended Payments Following Judgment

Lump sum payable to petitioner, Eva Gordon:	$62,500.00

¹ Respondent has no objection to the amount of the proffered award of damages set forth herein. Assuming the Court issues a damages decision in conformity with this proffer, respondent waives his right to seek review of such damages decision. However, respondent reserves his right, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(e), to seek review of the Court's December 23, 2022 entitlement decision.

² Should petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future lost earnings and future pain and suffering.
